NORTON

Carole announced her retirement from the Norton Museum of Art and resignation from FAEA's museum coordinator position. She is moving back to Virginia Beach and was grateful for our partnership and work with her throughout the years. She will be here for the Forest Hill High School Marden Gallery opening and student presentations by Forest Hill Language Arts students involved in the second year of the Norton's Museum as a Classroom project the evening of May 1. As an organization we extended a bittersweet congratulations and many grateful thanks for her work.
